

FRIDAY, JANUARY 4, 1895.

THE HUMBOLDT AND LANDER BOUNDARY.

In 1887 the Legislature passed an act requiring the Surveyor-General to cause to be made an accurate survey of the railroads in this State which extend from one boundary line of the State to the other and determine the number of miles of main track and side track in each of the counties of this State and place monuments at all points where such railroad crosses any county line, and mark on the sides of such monuments facing the respective counties the name of the county and the number of miles of railroad in such county, and the number of miles of main track and side track thus ascertained to be filed in the office of the Secretary of State, and a copy of the same to be filed with the Recorder of each of the counties through which said road extends. The sum of $2,500 was appropriated out of the General Fund of the State to defray the expenses of the survey.

As only one road—the Central Pacific—extends from one boundary line to the other the act applies to that road. The track department of the Central Pacific knew to a foot the number of miles of road belonging to the company in Nevada and as it was paying taxes on about four miles more of its road than lay within the State of Nevada it did not of course object to the Legislature appropriating $2,500 to establish the fact.

The survey established the boundary line between Humboldt and Lander over two miles west of the boundary and not only deprived Humboldt of over two miles of railroad but of a strip of territory north from the railroad to the Elko line. Humboldt brought suit to recover the strip. Lander demurred to the complaint and the trial court overruled the demurrer. Lander appealed to the Supreme Court and that tribunal has sustained the demurrer and the case will now have to be tried if Humboldt desires to re-establish the old boundary line.

By the survey the State of Nevada lost about four miles of railroad which was assessed at about $45,000 a year and it paid $2,500 for the privilege of releasing the Central Pacific Company from the payment of taxes on that amount. It is hardly necessary to say that the Silver party was not in the ascendancy in the Legislature or State Government when the act was passed.

THE AIR LINE RESOLVED INTO AIR.

The Nevada Air Line has vanished into thin air. It figured conspicuously in politics two years ago and while it was suspected of being in the interest of the Central Pacific it was made to appear that only the tools of that corporation were opposed to it. The Legislature of 1891 passed an act granting to the Utah and Nevada Air Line Railway Company the right to construct a road from the eastern boundary to the western boundary of the State through the counties of White Pine, Esmeralda, Lander, Churchill and Washoe and provided that it should receive from each of said counties bonds to the amount of $9,000 for each and every mile of road built through those counties. Some members of the Legislature proposed to amend the act by extending the rights and privileges which it granted specifically to the Air Line Company to any company that would build the road. This common sense proposition was not listened to and those who suggested it were denounced as enemies of progress. Now it is known that the only feasible route for the Air Line or any other new road in Northern Nevada across the Sierra Nevada, is owned by or mortgaged to the Southern Pacific Company. This route is through Deekwith Pass, twenty miles north of Reno. A narrow gauge road runs through the pass into Sierra Valley and Plumas county, California. With this pass in possession of the Southern Pacific that company can snap its fingers at any company that threatens to build an opposition line from the east through Northern Nevada to the Pacific. The Air Line, therefore, if it ever had a tangible existence, has vanished into air and can only be built on the earth by the Southern Pacific or with its consent.

CONGRESS IN SESSION.

Congress met yesterday, the members having digested their Christmas turkey and recovered from the effects of the champagne with which they washed it down. The Senate resumed consideration of the Nicaragua Canal bill, and the House went into Committee of the Whole to discuss the Currency bill.

It is to be hoped that Congress will let the money kings take care of themselves and do something for the people in the next two months. An act requiring the Secretary of the Treasury to run the mints to their full capacity coining standard silver dollars for the people and to pay out a reasonable proportion of silver coins for the expenditures of the Government would do much to restore the country to its normal condition. It is despotism for the so-called representatives of the people to prevent citizens of the United States, who are suffering from all the ills incident to a contraction of the currency, from using the mints to coin money to relieve the country from those ills. Every farmer is willing to dispose of his products for silver dollars. No workingman refuses to take such dollar in exchange for his day's labor. The merchant will willingly sell his wares for standard dollars, and even the most pronounced goldbug paper gladly gives space in its columns in exchange for silver dollars. Shall opportunity to consummate these things be denied the people because the Gold Trust so desires?

JAPAN IMPATIENT

Irritated by China's Delay It May End Peace Negotiations.

WASHINGTON, January 3.—It is the belief of officials in a position to know the status of affairs between Japan and China that Japan will declare the peace negotiations off unless China hastens them. There is increased irritation on the part of Japan as to the delays in presenting definite proposals. More than a month has passed since it was agreed that a tender of peace conditions would be considered by Japan and as yet the conditions have not been offered and there is doubt as to China's plenipotentiaries having the right to make any final offers.

Already the Japanese Government is inclining to the unanimous demand of the native press to make far greater demands than were contemplated when the peace negotiations began. At that time the general understanding was that the basis of peace would be a cash indemnity and the independence of Korea. Now, however, there is an intimation that Japan may no longer accept the conditions as proposed, but may insist also on China's ceding extensive territory. This sentiment is universal, and it is believed that Japan will soon make it known to China, probably through Minister Dun at Tokio, that procrastination in presenting the terms of settlement is such that the negotiations will be abandoned unless closed within a reasonable and definite time.

There are evidences that Japan is prepared for an aggressive movement calculated to impress China and the plenipotentiaries with Japan's ability to increase the advantage she has already secured.

A gentleman who has been some years in diplomatic service in China points out that it is an invariable rule with China not to grant absolute power to her plenipotentiaries, but merely to confer advisory powers on them.

CONGRESSIONAL PROCEEDINGS

The Senate and House of Representatives Reassemble.

WASHINGTON, January 3.—The Senate reassembled at noon to-day after the holiday recess. Quay of Pennsylvania introduced the proposed amendment to the Urgent Deficiency bill, amending the Tariff law by striking out all provision for the income tax and substituting a new woolen schedule including a duty on raw wool.

At 2 o'clock the Senate resumed consideration of the Nicaragua Canal bill, Senator Morgan speaking.

The House presented an animated scene when called to order by Speaker Crisp to-day after the holiday recess. The galleries were crowded and over half the members were in their seats.

After a call of committees for reports, Springer, in charge of the Currency bill, moved to go into Committee of the Whole for the further consideration of that bill. The motion prevailed. Richard (Dem.) of Tennessee in the Chair.

Black (Dem.) of Georgia, a member of the Banking and Currency Committee, took the floor in favor of the bill.

RAILWAY ACCIDENT.

Narrow Escape of the Passengers.

PASADENA, Cal., January 3.—The Santa Fe west-bound overland train, which arrived here at 9 o'clock this morning, collided with the engine of a freight train near the depot and sustained great damage, the escape of the passengers seeming providential. The engine and five cars of the passenger train scraped along the freight engine, which was thrown off the track, but not clear, and one side of the passenger train, from the engine to the sleeper, was torn off on the iron work of the engine, which also was almost completely wrecked. The sleeper escaped with a bad scratch on one side, but all the other cars were half wrecked from the tracks to the roof. The passengers on the side next to the engine had a narrow escape, but none were hurt.

The Strike Extending.

BRADDOCK, Pa., January 3.—Reports just received from Homestead say the small strike of the ore handlers at the Carnegie blast furnaces at this place has extended across the Monongahela river, and several hundred employees of the Homestead Mills went out this evening through sympathy with the Braddock workmen. Whether the strikers are skilled or unskilled workmen is not known.

The new scale went into effect at Homestead to-day. The Braddock men say they will not be surprised if the entire Homestead plant is closed. If it is, the strike will be likely to spread to the City Mills. The men at all the plants have been reduced three or four times since the big strike of July, 1892.

RAILROADED TO PRISON.

Men Convicted for Refusing to Pay for Police Protection.

NEW YORK, January 3.—The confession of ex-Ward Man Shalvey before the Lexow Committee has given currency to the charge that two persons were railroaded to prison because they refused to pay the police for protection.

Philip Kievant and his wife, who keep a saloon at 86 Suffolk street, were convicted last March, before Judge Cowing, in General Sessions, of robbing a man in their saloon. Kievant was sentenced to eight years in State prison and is still in confinement. His wife was released after serving nine months. Shalvey was the principal witness against them, it was said by the prisoners, at the time they were convicted because they refused to pay tribute to the police. Chief Clerk Unger, who was then an Assistant District Attorney, says there may be some foundation for the charge, for he remembers that when the case was tried a number of reputable persons swore to the good character of Kievant and his wife. Judge Cowing said yesterday that he thought a petition had been circulated for the pardon of Kievant, but he could not remember.

SLEEPLESS MEN.

One Goes for Months and Another for Years Without Sleeping.

ANDERSON, Ind., January 3.—David Jones, a wealthy farmer residing in the northern part of the county of Elkhart, is wakeful and sleep refuses to visit him. He has passed his hundredth day and night. To-day is his one hundredth and fourth. He says ten days prior to the 27th day of September he virtually got no sleep, his rest being troubled with delirium and his eyes only closing in sleep for fitful moments. So his sleeplessness really dates back from September 17th. But after September 23d no sleep at all has visited him. He eats well, is able to work, and when he lies down at night he rests well for an hour or two, gets up and reads or employs his time otherwise for an hour or two and then lies down to rest for a short time. But no sleep comes. He has fallen off about five pounds during his insomnia. His case is a strange one, but no more so than others on record. In Parke county, near the little island town of Bridgeton, resides a young man named Tom Watt, who has not slept any for years. He is now twenty-eight years of age and no sleep has visited his eyes for the past twelve years.

THE BATTLE OF NEW ORLEANS.

Old Hickory's Day to be Celebrated.

NEW YORK, January 3.—The Business Men's Democratic Association will celebrate the anniversary of the battle of New Orleans with a dinner at the Plaza Hotel on the evening of Tuesday, January 8th. Invitations have been sent to President Cleveland, Vice President Stevenson, Secretary Lamont, Postmaster-General Bissell, Senator David B. Hill, Joseph Miller, United States Commissioner of Internal Revenue Miller, Governor Pattison of Pennsylvania, Governor Morrie of Connecticut, Governor Werts of New Jersey, ex-Governor Russell of Massachusetts, Senator Walsh and a number of prominent men.

Section Men Strike.

SAN BERNARDINO, January 3.—The cut in the wages of the section men of the Santa Fe, which was announced yesterday, resulted in a small strike among the local employees in that capacity, but it resulted simply in the workmen quitting and their places being filled immediately by other men who were willing to work for $1.50 per day.

The number of men involved is small and they are so scattered that their quitting work will amount to little unless the cut is extended to other departments of the road. This is momentarily expected, and employees say they will go out at once if it comes. The rumor could not be verified last night, but shopmen are looking for a 10 per cent cut, to be put in effect January 10th.

No reports have been received from out along the line as to the action of the section men, but railroad men think they will follow the example of the gangs which are stationed in this city.

Presidential Nominations.

WASHINGTON, January 3.—The President to-day sent the following nominations to the Senate: Herbert W. Bowman, Consul General at Barcelona, Spain; Andrew J. Patterson of Tennessee, Consul at Demarara, British Guiana; Justice T. Frank Clark of Florida, Attorney of the United States Southern District of Florida; Commissioner of Immigration, Walter F. Bradley of San Francisco, California.

War—Colonel G. Normal Lieber, Assistant Judge Advocate General, to be Judge Advocate General with the rank of Brigadier General.

Navy—Lieutenant Commander F. Hanford, to be Commander; Passed Assistant Engineer E. W. Galt to be Chief Engineer.

Postmasters—James H. Long at Petaluma, Cal.; Frank W. Winegard at Long Beach, Cal.; W. S. Dudley at Healdsburg, Cal.

Spokane Merchants Fail.

SPOKANE, Wash., January 3.—The firm of Lowenberg Brothers, which a couple of years ago was quoted as the wealthiest business house in Spokane, transferred all its stock and property, including not only the dry goods business, but the Lowenberg building, where the Louvre is, and the residence of Mr. Lowenberg, to J. N. Glover, who is trustee of a large number of the creditors.

Major F. M. Hurlbaker's attorney for some of the sureties on the bond of the late Julius A. Hutton, ex-Treasurer of Lyon county, was informed last evening by Mr. F. M. Hurlbaker, one of the Trustees of Dayton Lodge, No. 5, I. O. O. F., that there was only one bag of coin left with Mrs. Hutton by her late husband last Monday before he fatally shot himself.

This was a plain canvas bag with no marks upon it to indicate what funds it contained except a note telling Mrs. Hutton to hold at all hazards $1,500 of its contents for her personal use. The sack contained $4,380 in gold coin most of it in twenty-dollar pieces, and when the Trustees of the local Lodge of I. O. O. F. opened it they took therefrom about $1,100 belonging to that society.

The note left by Hutton also requested the payment of $500 to his sister out of the contents of the bag. Deducting the $1,000 claimed by the local Lodge of I. O. O. F., the $1,300 left to Mrs. Hutton and the $500 to his sister, there would remain only $1,400 to pay over to the Grand Lodge of I. O. O. F. and the Grand Lodge of the A. O. U. W.

This showing, if correct, indicates that Hutton was a defaulter with the funds of the above fraternal societies as well as with the county, as the amount due the Grand Lodge of I. O. O. F. exceeded $2,000.

Major Hurlbaker says that the only way to settle the question of the dispositions of the contents of the coin bag will be to turn the whole amount over to the court and divide it pro rata among the claimants, the county of Lyon coming in for its share in the division.—Va. Chronicle.

The following communication from Hutton was found in the safe addressed to the Board of County Commissioners:

In balancing up my accounts I find I have been robbed. Cannot tell when, but since December 3. How it could be accomplished I am unable to tell. I know that being at the time it is, just as I am going out of office, every one will say I was not robbed and I would be tried for it. I save the name of same I have made up my mind to put an end to my existence. Forgive me for it. It is hard but I cannot help it. God bless my wife and children.

T. P. Mack owes for fees from February 1, 1894, as you will see by receipts.

Wm. Taylor, who arrived last night from Carson on his way to Chicago to attend a meeting of the Supreme Board of Relief, A. O. U. W., says that Mr. Hutton was the member chosen to attend the meeting at Chicago, and Mrs. Hutton did not have the least suspicion that anything was wrong when her husband placed the sack of coin in her keeping and told her to pay any warrants drawn by the secretaries of the orders of which he was treasurer.

That while he was absent there would probably be more or less money drawn and she could act in his stead. She put the sack away until such time as he would conclude his county official duties and start on his trip. After he had killed himself a request was found that Mr. Taylor should be appointed a delegate in his place. The circumstances go to show that he had doubtless considered self-destruction for several days, but had carefully concealed any such intent from his family and friends.

Mr. Taylor says that the general opinion is that he did not use any of the money for his personal use, but had loaned small amounts from time to time to different ones until the aggregate had gotten beyond his control and that many of these loans were a dead loss and could not be collected. He was not a drinking man nor did he have any inclination to speculate or gamble, and lived very economically. Much sympathy is expressed for him and his family in this terrible misfortune.

PLAYING WITH EDGED TOOLS.
Amusement That May Prove Very Expensive.

The JOURNAL has been informed that type-written letters, some of which contain more or less scurrilous language, are being sent to various persons in town. The name of some respectable person is always signed to the letter. This may be considered innocent amusement by those engaged in it, but it is very dangerous, nevertheless. An act of the Legislature, approved February 21, 1893, provides:

"If any person shall knowingly send or deliver any letter or writing threatening to accuse another of a crime or misdemeanor, or to expose or publish any of his infirmities or failings, with intent to extort money, goods, chattels, or other valuable things; or threatening to maim, wound, kill, murder, or to burn or destroy his or her house or other property, or to accuse another of a crime or misdemeanor, or to expose or publish any of his or her infirmities, though no money, goods, chattels or other valuable thing be demanded; or writes and sends, or writes and delivers, either through the mail, express, by private parties, or otherwise, any anonymous letter, or any letter bearing a fictitious name, charging any person with crime, or writes and sends any anonymous letter or letters bearing a fictitious name, containing vulgar or threatening language, obscene pictures, or containing reflections upon his or her standing in society or in the community, such person so offending shall, on conviction, be fined in a sum not exceeding $500, and imprisonment in the county jail not exceeding six months."

A WASHINGTON APPEAL.

The Strongest Wind Ever Experienced on the Coast.

The wind blew with the velocity of a tornado on the coast yesterday.

Persons who attempted to cross O street near the International Hotel were blown off their feet by the gale.

Signs, awnings and stovepipes were blown down and more or less damage done in various parts of Virginia City.

Passengers who arrived on last evening's train from Carson say the wind was terrific in Washoe Valley and they feared at times that some of the most violent gusts would blow the train off the track.

In Reno the wind blew in fitful gusts from the south. It would be calm for a moment then a blast would come almost strong enough to raise a person off the ground. It partook somewhat of the character of a "chinook" and melted the snow as rapidly as the sun on a warm day.

The Fire Bell.

Just at 3 o'clock this morning the clanging of the fire bell startled the town, and the sound was the more startling owing to the high wind that had prevailed during most of the night.

The blaze was located in the north-western part of town and the steamer was soon on the way. The fire was in a residence, the property of Mr. Hoffman, and occupied by his son-in-law, Wm. Carter. The building and its contents were entirely destroyed. Nothing was saved except a few articles in the bedroom, which Mrs. Carter threw out the window. The fire is supposed to have occurred from a defective flue. Mr. Carter had arisen early with the intention of going out to the yards and had started a fire for breakfast. Mrs. Carter noticed a spark fall from the ceiling and suddenly the fire burst through and the whole upper part of the house seemed on fire. They endeavored to save what they could, but being alone did not accomplish much.

The hose cart did not arrive on the scene until the charred framework was about to fall, owing to the awful job the boys had trying to pull the heavy cart through the mud. Some provision should be made to haul these carts to a fire. The boys were so disgusted last night that they about determined to not attempt another such trip, no matter what the danger to the town might be. They were worn out when they arrived at the fire, and it is enough to ask them to work after getting to a fire without asking them to make corpses of themselves in hauling the apparatus on to the ground, especially such a night as it was last night.

A Calendar worth Having.

Almost everyone has use for a calendar, and by the same token, they ought to have one of some use. A calendar that you have to study or "set" has little excuse for existence.

The one we like best of all is that published by N. W. Ayer & Son, the Newspaper Advertising Agents of Philadelphia.

The handsome copy of 1895 carries on its seal their famous motto, "Keeping everlastingly at it brings success," which will alone each day be worth to all who use far more than the price of the calendar. The size is generous, and the work a beautiful specimen of the printers' art. Each day, as is becoming to such an important slice of time, is printed large enough to be read across a room. Then too, the matter on the flaps deals with a subject in which there is a growing general interest.

That the demand for this calendar increases each year, we can easily understand, for we do not believe that any one that has spent one year in company with it, will be willing to spend another without it.

The price is 25 cents, delivered anywhere post paid, and in perfect condition.

A Remarkable Case.The Silver State says Drs. Hanson and Hagar held an autopsy on the body of the Italian Santini, who was stabbed on Christmas, and found that the knife had penetrated the pericardium (the sack enveloping the heart) and entered the left auricle of the heart. Death resulted from hemorrhage. This is one of the few cases on record where a man has lived nearly a week with a knife wound in his heart. Coroner Gramm held an inquest on Santini's body yesterday and the jury found that he came to his death from a knife wound inflicted by Menesucci Candido.The Best Present.

The best present you can give your wife for Christmas is a three months treatment of Viavi; it brings health and makes a happy home. I will be glad to explain regarding its merits, and will refer you to those who have been cured by its use. VIAMI CO.

The ball given by George Cornwall Division O. R. C. at Winnemucca was a social and financial success. The Silver State says there was over 200 persons in attendance all the towns along the railroad in Humboldt and Lander counties being represented.

There will probably be a meeting of the several District Judges in Reno or Carson some time in the near future to confer about the changes involved in changing from the old system of one Judicial District to the new one dividing the State into four Judicial Districts.

Some little excitement occurred in the Pawning Addition last evening during the high wind, caused by the burning out of a flue on Mr. McKie's residence. For a time a fire seemed imminent, but the neighbors procured buckets of water and stood ready to act. No alarm was rung in.

Those interested in the subjects treated in the work may obtain a copy free by applying to the State Mining Bureau, No. 24, Fourth street, San Francisco. Persons living outside the State should remit 14 cents for postage.

On the Road.

It is reported that there are in the neighborhood of 150 tramps on the road between here and Sacramento, being a part of the gang driven out of that city.

If this is so and if there is any probability of them making a stand here it would not be a bad idea to have a committee of citizens to aid the officers in giving them a warm reception. If they are checked early it may save much trouble and expense later on.

Now Try This.

It will cost you nothing and will surely do you good, if you have a cough, cold, or any trouble with throat, chest or lungs. In Olden Times.

People overlooked the importance of permanently beneficial effect and were satisfied with transient action; but now that it is generally known that Syrup of Figs will permanently cure habitual constipation, well-informed people will not buy other laxatives, which act for a time, but finally injure the system.
